MISSISSIPPI CITY, Oct. 2.—General Smedes was taken with the fever this morning.

The Cricket Match at Hoboken.

By Telegraph to the News.

HOBOKEN, N. J., Oct. 2.—The attendance this morning at the Cricket match was large and is increasing. The New York team resumed their play at 11:45, Messrs. Greig and Giles, who were not out yesterday, going to the wickets, to the bowling of Spofford and Boyle. At 12:30 p. m. the Americans had made 73 runs for 7 wickets, including four which fell in yesterday's part of their second innings. The Americans ended their second innings for a score of 98. Their total score for both innings was 161.

Cause of Failure of the Bank of Glasgow.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Oct. 2 —The failure of the City of Glasgow Bank, it is believed, is in consequence of large advances on American securities, grain and real estate, the value of which has greatly depreciated.

THE PEABODY FUND.

Trustees' Meeting---President Hayes Present--Speech of Mr. Winthrop.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The annual meeting of the Trustees of the Peabody Educational Fund took place to-day. It was attended by President Hayes and Secretary Evarts.

Robt. C. Winthrop, President of the Board, made a short address, congratulating the members upon the presence of President Hayes, who had broken away from his official duties to show his interest in educational matters. Notwithstanding serious shrinkage of income, he said the cause of free public schools at the South had made most encouraging progress in the past year, and while they could do nothing as a Board to aid in relieving the physical suffering of their Southern brethren, while the plague was raging, they could do and had done and were doing not a little to promote that intellectual and moral improvement which must sustain them in every trial, and be the basis of their future prosperity and welfare.

The annual report was read, It says: the year just closed has been one of universal pecuniary embarrassment to all schools of the South, and while every Department of Education has been affected, that relating to the employment of teachers and public officers has suffered most. Cheapening the labors of men on whom the vitality of the system depends, is a more dangerous experiment than is generally supposed. The scholarships established last year have had an excellent effect. In the Peabody Normal Seminary, at Louisiana, one-fourth of all the female teachers of New Orleans during many years have been educated. The following figures show a distribution of the income of the fund during the year: Virginia, $15,350; North Carolina, $4,500; South Carolina, $3,600; Georgia, $6,000; Florida, $3,900; Alabama, $8,000; Texas, $8,550; Arkansas, $6,000; Tennessee, $14,600; West Virginia, $5,050.

THAT ROW ABOUT KIMPTON.

What the Governor of South Carolina said to the Governor of Massachusetts--The Latter is Heard in Reply.

By Telegraph to the News.

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—Gov. Rice declines to put Gov. Hampton's letter relative to the Kimpton matter, upon the files of the Executive Department. He has forwarded the following communication:

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, Sept. 30.

His Excellency, Wade Hampton, Governor, Columbia, S. C.:

SIR:—I received on Saturday last an extraordinary official communication, addressed to me over your signature, the contents of which I had read in the newspapers three days before. I beg to remind your Excellency that any attempted rebuke of Massachusetts by South Carolina, for non-observance of the constitutional or statutory obligations, is a refinement of sarcasm which renders any other defence of the former State unnecessary. The treatment of the case of Hiram H. Kimpton by the authorities of this Commonwealth, was uninfluenced by any personal or political considerations. Massachusetts had no quarrel with South Carolina, and had no friendship for Kimpton, but was bound to extend to each their respective rights under the laws. Every courtesy, official and personal, was extended to the representatives of South Carolina, and unusual care was bestowed upon their investigation and consideration of the case, and its decision was reached upon grounds of perfect impartiality, and in accordance with the law and the facts, and with convictions of public duty. In communicating this decision to your Excellency, my statement that the object of the requisition did not appear to be for the purpose of trying Kimpton for the crime charged against him, but for a different purpose, was simply a recital of the facts contained in the report of the Attorney General, a copy of which was furnished with my letter to you, and is, in his opinion and mine, clearly established by evidence. Your Excellency's letter requires no argument in reply. It is sufficient to say that it contains statements to mislead the public, where the facts of the case are unknown. Its language and untimely publication are offensive and unjustifiable. I decline to accept it or permit it to be placed upon the files of the Executive Department of this Commonwealth. It is herewith returned.

Your obedient servant.
[Signed.] ALEXANDER H. RICE,
Governor.

Louisiana Fast and Prayer--Rewards for Murderers.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 2.—Gov. Nicholls has issued a proclamation, recommending Wednesday, October 9th, as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, for deliverance from the scourge.

The Governor has also issued a proclamation offering rewards for the arrest and conviction of the parties who hung the colored man, Broad-heart, on September 17th, at West Feliciana, until nearly dead, and then beat his wife and two children.

Also, for the murderers of Thomas Dalton, on September 21st, at West Feliciana parish.

Turbulent Peace-Makers.

By Cable to the News.

PARIS, Oct. 2.—The International Peace Congress ended yesterday with a sitting somewhat confused, occasionally. Bratiano defended Roumania energetically against the reflections of one of the speakers regarding the alleged religious persecutions in that province, but the majority disapproved his defence. Later in the session Dupre attacked the Vatican in offensive terms, and was stopped by the President.

Radical Success in Colorado.

By Telegraph to the News.

DENVER, COL., Oct. 2.—Returns, as far as received, indicate the election of the entire Republican State ticket, by a majority over the combined Democrat and Greenback vote.

Vermont Legislature.

By Telegraph to the News.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 2.—The Legislature met to-day. The House organized by the election of James M. Martin, Speaker, and Henry G. Newell, Clerk.

Germany and the Vatican.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, October 2.—A despatch from Rome says: Negotiations between Germany and the Vatican have failed.

The specimen locomotive sent to the Paris Exposition by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company is to be taken over the railroads of Italy and other countries, and an engineer has been delegated by the company to proceed abroad on Thursday to take charge of the engine during its travels. Another agent of the company, Mr. Quintard, is now in Europe, laboring energetically to obtain a market for anthracite coal. In order to popularize the mineral Mr. Quintard has hit upon the device of presenting an American stove to every large purchaser, thus killing two birds with one stone. The stoves on exhibition at the Paris Exposition are also burning anthracite.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.

Bledsoe, Turner and the Cowbell.

LOUISBURG, Oct. 1.

Correspondence of the News.

For the past week Turner and Bledsoe have been haranguing the people of this county, and I think, if they make themselves as disagreeable in other counties in the district as they did in this, that Honest Jo. Davis will be elected by an overwhelming majority. At this place, on Tuesday last, the scene presented by these two aspirants for Congressional honors was supremely farcical. The picture, as drawn in the Times, was not exaggerated. At Franklinton it was even worse than here. I learn that both were on the stand at the same time. At Clifton's Mill the climax was reached. Mr. Bledsoe got possession of the stand. Turner, coming up while Bledsoe was speaking, claimed the stand, as it was his appointment. Bledsoe declined to yield, and said he would not stop until he got through. Turner stepped into Mr. Clifton's store and purchased a cow-bell, and Bledsoe's lungs, not being equal to the tone of the bell, he was forced to step down, and thereupon Turner mounted the stand, and, whenever Bledsoe attempted to interrupt him, he would ring his cow-bell. Was there ever such child's play between two grown white men going around the District and asking the suffrages of the people for a high and honorable office? Turner has belled Bledsoe. Now cage Turner, and let the Republicans nominate a straight out against Jo. Davis, and just see how Davis will thrash the crowd.

Our court opened to-day, His Honor Judge Kerr on the bench. There are several important cases to be tried. I will keep you informed.

Letter from Anson.

Correspondence of the News

WADESBORO, Oct. 1.

If we were required to mention the question of absorbing interest in Anson just now, we would unhesitatingly say cotton. King Cotton rules the hour. This season of the year is welcomed by all classes. To the town it brings renewed activity of trade, gives employment to many citizens, and brightens materially the financial outlook of the merchant for the ensuing year. To the farmer this era is ushered in with joyous welcome. Owing to the system of farming now largely in vogue, cotton is the only product which can be converted into cash. Methodist preachers, scarcely ever noted for opulence, say they "love to feel rich once a year." So it is with our agriculturists; they love the annual jingle of cash in their pockets.

It is probably not generally known that an auxiliary branch of the "American Bible Society" exists in this county. They have been prosecuting their noble work nearly one year. This society holds a meeting on an appointed Sabbath of each month. On these occasions they have an address from some person previously selected. At their regular meeting on yesterday, the orator of the occasion was Mr. W. L. Parsons. Mr. Parsons is a young man of much promise. He was educated at Wofford College, S. C., and presents another evidence of the thoroughness of that institution. In a speech of about thirty minutes, he held the attention of the entire audience, and elicited from the old citizens, who had known the ability of his father, many remarks of approval. I should like to give you, from memory, a synopsis of his speech, but space forbids. The society holds its anniversary the first Sunday in December, when I will give you some "figures," in proof of its usefulness. S.

Cleopatra's Needle.

Charleston News and Courier.

Cleopatra's Needle was raised to its position on the Thames embankment without a hitch. When the signal had been given, the monolith began slowly to move on an iron axis, and, with no apparent strain on any point, the giant block of stone gradually raised its head until at an angle of ten or fifteen degrees from the perpendicular it came to perfect rest, suspended on its centre of gravity. It was then easily moved into its proper place. Within the pedestal had been placed an earthenware jar containing Bibles in French and English, an Arabic Genesis, a Hebrew Pentateuch and a verse from the third chapter of St. John in 215 different languages. It has been pointed out that this enterprise is only the second instance since the time of the Roman Emperors of the transport of a colossal obelisk from the shores of Africa to any other part of the world. The first instance was the memorable enterprise of Louis Philippe in removing the Luxor monolith of Rameses II to the centre of the Place de la Concorde in Paris. It was set on its pedestal on the 25th of October, 1836, in the presence of the King, the Royal Family, and an immense concourse of people. Some sailors climbed to the top when it was firmly in place, and placed the tri-color there amid the shouts of the multitude below. When the obelisk at St. Peter's in Rome was set up in 1586, it required the joint labor of 1,500 men and 140 horses, straining for a month at blocks, ropes and tackles. But in contrast with this, only a dozen men were working at the cranks in London the other day, and they raised the obelisk in half an hour. There are only twelve colossal obelisks now standing on the face of the earth. Five are in Egypt, four in Rome and one each in Paris, London and Constantinople. It cost about £15,000 to remove Cleopatra's Needle to London and to set it up, but Louis Philippe's government expended between £80,000 and £90,000 to secure theirs.

Diphtheria's Ravages.

Hillsboro Recorder.

The fatality in the afflicted family of Chatham caused by diptheria has already been mentioned. A gentleman who was in Chatham last week gives us some particulars which rival in harrowing incident the most aggravated horrors of the present plague of yellow fever. The great mortality which attended the existence of diphtheria last summer had impressed a terrible dread of its power upon the whole community; and when the first case was announced as having occurred in the said family a panic terror kept everybody aloof from the infected house. No one came near it, no aid was offered, no one knew the condition of the sick, and no one knew whether one or many cases scourged the afflicted family. Days passed away before one man, more courageous or more humane than others, ventured to offer sympathy, or aid. Entering the house, he found the unhappy father seated in a chair with two of his little ones upon his knees, one evidently dying, the other violently ill. While in the house, the dying one breathed its last, and the visitor took the body and placed it upon the bed. To his horror, he found the bed already occupied by two corpses of little ones who had previously died. In another room, he found the mother extremely sick, and an infant exhibiting the first symptoms of diphtheria. Before the visitor left the house, the first child died, and shortly afterwards the mother and the infant,—the whole family—followed, and he is left alone in the world.

Death of an Estimable Man.

Correspondence of the News.

BEAUFORT, Oct. 1.

Died in Beaufort, Carteret county, on Wednesday, the 25th of September, 1878, of typho-malarial fever, Louis H. Barrow, Esq., at the age of 32 years.

The death of this young gentleman, in the morning of his life, is much lamented in this community, where he was greatly beloved for his many virtues and his pleasant ways. He was a native of Hyde county, in this State; graduated at the University of Virginia; obtained license from the Supreme Court of this State, in 1870, to practice law, and removed to this place, several years ago, where he employed his time in teaching school and practising in his profession. Though his health was very poor, his purpose was to extend, ere long, his field of practice. But all plans were thwarted by death. He was a member of the Episcopal Church, and we humbly hope his departed spirit reposes now in everlasting peace.

FRIEND.

A C. S. Major General Now a U. S. Private.

Charleston News and Courier.

Some time since it was published that an ex-major-general in the Confederate service had enlisted as a private soldier in the regular army, and there has been a great deal of curiosity exhibited as to who the reduced general might be. It transpires that the man is Major-General Stockton, who is a graduate of West Point Military Academy, and went into the Confederate service, reaching the rank named. Upon his enlistment he was not sent to the frontier with the ordinary recruits, but was detailed for clerical duty at the War Department.

Another Lincoln Anecdote.

Owing to the very inferior quality of the metal used as a base for plating, several years ago, many people preferred paying the invariably high, and frequently exhorbitant prices then demanded for sterling silver spoons, forks, etc. But of late years many improvements have been made, not only as a material for the base, but in the amount of silver applied. TRIPLE PLATED Casters, Forks, Spoons, Ice Pitchers, Pickle Casters, Butter Dishes, and many other articles suitable for bridal presents, etc., can now be bought at Law's China and Silver House at lower prices for BEST GOODS than ever before.

"The Petersburg Index-Appeal says the North Carolina papers praise their public men more elaborately than the journals of any other State in the Union; and adds, 'the practice is demoralizing and ought not to be maintained.' We heartily agree with the Index. The practice is one indulged in entirely too freely. Public servants should be sustained and encouraged by all means, and when they do well the Press nor the people should be niggardly in their commendation. But when we see our public men plastered over with flattery and made demigods of, it is offensive to good taste and common sense. It has come to that pass that if a man offers for Coroner, those who do not know him would infer from the newspaper comments on him that he ought to be in the U. S. Senate. Such a practice is undignified, and injurious to the papers which indulge in it, and makes the object of their fulsome praise ridiculous."

We copy the foregoing from the Warrenton Gazette. We do not know that the practice to which it refers, and which the Index-Appeal criticises, is peculiar to North Carolina, but we do believe it to be a failing of the Southern Press. The fulsome and indiscriminate laudation of party candidates or personal favorites indulged in by our papers is calculated to bring both the blower and the blowed into ridicule, if they only knew it.

The Governors are losing ground. The remarks of the Governor of South Carolina to the Governor of North Carolina were of an exceedingly pleasant and social import. Not so however, the words of the Governor of South Carolina to the Governor of Massachusetts. —Milwaukee Sentinel.

ONE WOMAN'S LIFE.

Watching Nightly for the Husband who was Brought Home to her Dead, Years Ago

N. Y. World.

People who cross City Hall square at night have noticed a little old woman dressed in an odd brown gown, a light sacque, and a white frilled cap scrupulously clean. She walks the square from 9 p. m. till past midnight to and fro, scanning every man's face, and after many disappointments every night goes slowly, very late, up to her home in Mulberry street. About four years ago John Reilly, her husband, was employed in the press-room of the Herald. About 9 o'clock every night he met his wife, who brought down his lunch and carried back the dishes. One cold dark night he did not meet her, and as she did not know the way to the press-room she waited some time and then went home. In her room she found his dead body upon the bed. He had been killed by the falling of a roll of paper. She did not die, though she was near dying, and she still waits every night to meet her husband. Winter and summer are alike to her, and no weather delays her, though she is sixty years of age.

NOTES.

Cider may be a good temperance drink, but I can manage to get so drunk on it that I kant tell one of the 10 commandments from a by-law of a base-ball club.—Josh Billings.

The Hon. J. H. Acklen, of Louisiana, is again accused of having been guilty of a nameless outrage. The victim was a young woman on the Bayou Teche. She died a few days ago of yellow fever, but shortly previous to her death made an affidavit that Acklen had drugged her with wine and accomplished her ruin. The scandal creates quite a sensation in New Orleans, and Acklen is yet to be heard from. If he is not a guilty man, he is certainly a very unfortunate one.

Ten years ago the great organized Democratic party was in the minority. Since then it has had a brilliant series of successes. And just as this same great party is about to reach forth her hand receive the prize for which she has struggled, is it possible for any set of men—who have helped her to fight the great battles—to disintegrate her, and foil her? Men are not yet ready to tear down this party which has saved the country from utter ruin. We do not believe there is any such apostasy in the land.—Dahlonega Signal.

The marked superiority of women over men is on few points more remarkable than in their superior power of smelling and tasting. A woman will detect the fairtest odor of tobacco when a man, even though a non-smoker often fails to discover any symptom of it. As with smell, so with taste. Women are wonderfully acute and fastidious in the manner of sauces and all flavoring ingredients. This faculty has been recognized in a most pleasing manner by the composition of the jury who are to decide in Paris on the merits of mustards of various nations. The Mustard congress is to consist of twelve gentlemen and an equal number of ladies This arrangement, it is stated, is owing to a suggestion that the palates of the men are vitiated by smoking, whereas women, who do not as a rule indulge in that pernicious habit, are likely to be better qualified to form a correct opinion on the merits of condiments.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Among the passengers on the overland train bound for San Francisco, one day last week, was an ex-Governor of the State of Tennessee, accompanied by his family. At one of the small stations on the Central Pacific road, a short distance this side of Ogden, the train was boarded by one of the gambling sharps that infest the line, on the lookout for victims to fleece, by means of the swindling devices practiced by the thievish crew. The fellow succeeded in robbing one of the passengers of the better part of his traveling capital, when the transaction attracted the attention of other passengers, and some commotion ensued. The affair not occurring in San Francisco, there were no police there to protect the gambler, and he was siezed and a fierce demand made for the plunder, with a drawing of pistols and threats of dire vengeance. In the midst of the tumult a lady in the car gave a shriek and fell into a swoon. It was the wife of the distinguished gentleman from Tennessee. The attention of the gambler was drawn to the incident, and immediately his pistol fell from his hand as if from a stroke of palsy, and he staggered backward in a helpless condition. On recovering his nerve, the gambler restored the money taken from his victim and hastened to the assistance of the lady. A mutual recognition appeared to ensue between the gambler and the party, and the meeting was evidently a sad one. The remaining passengers in the car perceived sufficient to understand that an erring son had unexpectedly met with his parents, and that the car was relieved of further swindling attempts the remainder of the passage.

Died on the Road.

Correspondence of the News.

LEAKSVILLE Oct. 1.

Mr. Samuel S. Burton, the son of our townsman, Mr. J. W. Burton, while on his way home, died on the road between Ridgsville and Leaksville. He has been teaching school in Tennessee for some time, and also preparing himself for the University, and they lose a very efficient member indeed. J.

Another Lincoln Anecdote.

"That reminds me," said he, "of a story about a horse that was sold at the cross-roads near where I once lived. The horse was supposed to be fast, and quite a number of people were present at the time appointed for the sale. A small boy was employed to ride the horse backward and forward to exhibit his points. One of the would-be buyers followed the boy down the road and asked him confidentially if the horse had a splint. 'Well, Mister,' said the boy, 'if it's good for him he has got it, but if it isn't good for him he hasn't.'"

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

The Campaign--The New Building--Senior Speaking.

Correspondence of the News.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, Oct. 1.

The tinners have come and are working on the roof of the new building. As soon as it is covered in, work will make rapid progress, as there will be no interruption from bad weather. By the way, either my pen or your types made me give 1798 as the date of the birth of Elder Wayt. It should be 1789, as it appears on the memorial slab.

The belles and beaux of the community have already begun to talk about the 1st senior speaking, and ye graduate thinketh of Alexander and Napoleon. For the first time in many years the senior class is so large that it will have to be divided into sections. There are six applicants for the degree of Master of Arts, which is only bestowed upon those who have completed the entire course of study pursued in the institution. It cannot be obtained without hard work and represents genuine scholarship.

The fields are white with cotton. There is some lack of labor for picking it out. There are six gins running within a mile and a half of this place.

ALIQUANDO.

The Next State Fair.

Donations to the North Carolina Agricultural Society for the Premium List of the 18th Annual Fair, Oct 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19th next, at Raleigh, N. C. (Acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.)

One half ton (5 bags) "Peruvian Guano and Bone Dust" Fertilizer, manufactured by C. L. Upshur, Norfolk, Va., given by Mr. Upshur through Dr. C. D. Rice, of this city. This article has been used for several years with growing popularity in North Carolina and Virginia for wheat and cotton.

One young boar, (three months old) cross bred, Poland China and Berkshire, given by C. L. Upshur, Esq., from his stock farm, "Red Cliff," near Suffolk, Va. Mr. Upshur closes a very kind letter to the Secretary as follows: "I leave the appointment of prizes for the above donations to yourself, trusting to your fuller information and judgment for judicious selections. Hoping your approaching Fair may exceed your most sanguine expectations, and wishing your Society the fullest measure of success, I remain

Yours truly, C. L UPSHUR.

Two hundred peach trees, $20.00, given by S. Otho Wilson, Henderson, N. C. Mr. Wilson is an enterprising nurseryman near Henderson, and we understand contemplates moving his business to Raleigh next year. He begins well in thus favorably announcing himself to the public, by this liberal donation.

One barrel family flour, given by T. A. Williams & Co., Norfolk, Va., through Dr. C. D. Rice. We have been previously indebted to this excellent and already well known house to our mercantile community, and are especially pleased to hear from them again.

One plow, "Farmer's Friend," given by E. H. Plummer & Co., Petersburg, Va., through Dr. C. D. Rice, of this city. Messrs. Plummer & Co., are a well known firm, having large dealings with North Carolina trade. Their contribution is a practical one for our farmers.

Two "Stonewall" plows, given by S. R. White & Co., Norfolk, Va., through Messrs. M. T. Norris & Co., agents, Raleigh, N. C., and transmitted to us by Dr. Rice. Messrs. White & Co. were represented at our last Fair, and we are glad to see that they will again be before the farmers of North Carolina.

One dozen model washboards, given by Vanderbilt & Mercer, 31 Cortlandt street, New York, through Maj. S. A. Heath, 212 Pearl street, New York, agent for our Fair. These washboards are especially commended to the use of our ladies, being a new patent which attracts great attention, as being especially serviceable in the laundry.

One selection plows, given by C. Billups, manufacturer and dealer in all kinds of agricultural implements, Norfolk, Va., through Dr. C. D. Rice. Mr. Billups gave a contribution last year. His house is one of the most staunch in Norfolk, with extensive connections in this State. We hope to see many friends from Norfolk and Portsmouth attending the great Fair of this month.

One hundred dozen Clark's O. N. T. spool cotton, $37.50, and three handsome walnut cabinets, given by Geo. A. Clark & Brother, sole agents for Clark's O. N. T. spool cotton, 400 Broadway, New York.

We were favored with a visit from Robert Botherston Esq., now visiting the South, in the interest of the extension of the trade in this standard article, and are indebted to him for this most generous donation to our Fair. Liberal premiums from it will be found included in the supplementary premium list. This fine thread is made in the rough at Paisley, and finished in America. It is made by machinery of marvelous delicacy and adaptation to its work; the apparatus was on exhibition at the Centennial.

An Astonishing Fact.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the Western Continent. aug. 6—eow-d&w.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton in Raleigh are rapidly increasing, and their growth is due to the energy and judgement exercised by commission merchants. Messrs A C Sanders & Co. have been in the commission business, and are known as prompt and reliable commission merchants, who do only a commission business. Their charges are as low as any.

The General Depot.

For supplies of all kinds, from fine to heavy groceries, is the store of W. H. Dodd, corner Martin and Wilmington streets. In this large establishment is kept one of the largest, most complete and reasonably priced stocks ever shown in Raleigh.

The First District.

The intelligence from this District is of the most gratifying and encouraging character. Maj. Yeates is making a splendid canvass, everywhere arousing the utmost enthusiasm. As a popular speaker he has few superiors, and his ability in this respect is supplemented by genial personal qualities that make him a universal favorite. He has a constituency that, though sometimes lulled into a temporary apathy, never fail to rise to the exigencies of the hour, when grave and important issues or high demands of party allegiance challenge their activity and support.

Independently of the popularity of Maj. Yeates, and the effective canvass which he is making, the demoralization of the Radical party in the District renders victory certain. He has three Republican opponents: Jos. J. Martin, of Martin county, the regular nominee, who has proven a complete failure on the hustings, and, in his extremity, has actually been constrained to bolt his party platform and advocate genuine Democratic principles; J. B. Respass, of Beaufort, an independent Republican, of no mean powers as a debater, who, complaining of injustice at the hands of the nominating convention of his party, makes Martin the special object of his assaults; and J. L. Chamberlain, of Camden, also an independent Radical of rather pyrotechnic talents, who "sloshes around" generally.

The campaign on the northern side of the Albemarle, so far as the candidates are concerned, has now been completed, and, for the remainder of the canvass, the other portions of the District will claim their attention. We are fully justified, by accurate private information, in saying that the First District is all right and that the gallant and gifted Yeates will be returned to Congress by a signal majority,—the proper reward and recognition of his usefulness and efficiency in the National councils. Let the other Districts emulate the example of the noble First, and the Democratic phalanx will remain unimpaired and unbroken!

An Alien Nominee.

We have no idea that the Hon. Edwin G. Reade, whom the insignificant squad that dignified themselves by the name of a Convention in this city, on Tuesday, nominated as a candidate for Congress, will allow his name to be used in that connection. That gentleman has just completed his service as a Judge of the Supreme Court of the State and is presumed to entertain and retain some sense of the high obligations and moral responsibilities and convictions which so exalted a position imposed and involved. Judge Reade is not, and knows that he is not, a citizen of this Congressional District. He has never voted in it, paid poll tax in it, nor in the other particulars which constitute citizenship,—and which he, so lately a Judge of our supreme tribunal, so well understands and appreciates, or should comprehend,—identified himself with the people of the District as a fellow citizen. He has spent a good portion of his time here, it is true, but that has been caused by the nature of his judicial duties or by sanitary considerations. We presume, therefore, that Judge Reade will at once inform Tim Lee that, not belonging to the bailiwick, he is not "eligible" as a candidate for Congress.

We know the fact, of course, that actual District citizenship is not a necessary legal qualification for a member of Congress, but all the proprieties require that there should be identification between a man seeking to be a Representative and his constituency.

The Seventh District.

The Statesville Landmark says: "Our gallant standard-bearer for Congress, Hon. R. F. Armfield, is making an aggressive canvass in the mountain counties of this district, and is winning golden opinions. From nearly every place he has spoken at, we receive intelligence of the cordial manner which characterized his reception, and of the fine effect his speeches have had on the minds of the people. In opening the canvass at Yadkinville on the 10th instant, he arraigned the Radical party for iniquities perpetrated by unjust legislation which has wrought untold ruin upon the nation, with his usual force and clearness. At Wilkesboro he confined himself to the financial question, which argument was pronounced, by all who heard it, a masterly and thorough canvass of that momentous issue."

Organization.

The County Executive Committee of Wake are invited to assemble in this city on the 5th instant. We trust that there may be a full attendance from every Township. Matters of grave moment, affecting our county organization, will engage the deliberations of the Committee, and it is of the highest importance that a complete representation shall be had.

The Democrats of Wake are a true body of men, and we only need concert of counsel to compact our organization. Come up, then, friends, and let the metropolitan county of the metropolitan District set an example of zeal and purpose in the work before us!

Judge Reade.

It is the part of fairness, perhaps, until Judge Reade signifies a willingness to allow his name to be used as the candidate of the ridiculous assemblage which met in this city, on Tuesday, (which we have no idea that he will do,) to forbear those strictures upon and that ventilation of his record which are legitimate weapons in party warfare. If Judge Reade prefers, with advancing age, and after long public service, to seek the quiet pursuits of life rather than the arena of political strife, we certainly have neither the right nor the disposition to bring his name or antecedents into controversy.

W. H. Kitchen, Esq.

The nomination of this gentleman by the Democrats of the Second Congressional District is an excellent one. Mr. Kitchen is an admirable stump-speaker and a gentleman of great personal popularity. Whether elected or defeated, he will give his opponent on the canvass a lively time. It is not the first time that he has been selected as the leader of a forlorn hope, but he is just the man to snatch victory out of the jaws of seeming improbability.

"If so soon I was done for,
I wonder what I was begun for."

This epitaph upon the tomb-stone of an infant, who only sojourned in this sublunary sphere for the space of a few days, is peculiarly applicable to the case of our quondum Democratic friend, Moses A. Bledsoe. An independent Democratic candidate for the Senate in Wake, during the last campaign, he emerged from the canvass, by a sort of natural transition, a full-fledged Radical. Emboldened by this veature, he aspired to Congressional honors, and, to use his own expression, "spent time and money" in behalf of his new love. He canvassed several counties of the District, with a stout determination worthy of a better cause, but has finally succumbed to the cow-bell of Josiah and the ruling of Tim Lee's Convention. We say Tim Lee's Convention, for was not "Tim" the President thereof and did he not mightily oppose Moses in the Senatorial race aforesaid? Vale, Moses! And yet only, it may be, for a while. It is somewhat suspected that Moses and his friends are playing a nice little game. When Judge Reade declines the nomination, irregularly and questionably tendered him, the infant phenomenon will be resurrected and will then claim the support of the party, not only on the ground of having "spent time and money" for it, but for the additional reason that he exhibited such commendable and beautiful abnegation in sacrificing his aspirations for the sake of its harmony! O tempora! O Moses!

THE New York World recently revived a story which Tom Corwin, of Ohio, was wont to tell of himself. It is applicable to the scene in Tim Lee's Convention, when "three cheers" were proposed for Judge Reade. The story runs thus: Corwin had finished one of his stump speeches, when a man cried "three cheers." The Chairman was versed in Jefferson's Manual and mechanically said: "All who are in favor "of three cheers for the Honorable "Thomas Corwin will say aye." The Chairman was greeted with a tornado of ayes. "Any opposed will say no." One bitter enemy vociferated "No." "Carried," added the Chairman, amid roars of laughter. Corwin always added: "To this day I never have forgotten the cheers which were voted to me."

Tim didn't exactly have to put the question as to whether the cheers should be given, but, before they were given, most of the crowd left, and if Judge Reade had been present he would never have forgotten the feeble cheering he received.

THE PLEASING FICTION of the bleaching of a negro family by the use of water from a miraculous well, recently "invented" (perhaps) by the sprightly Localizer of the NEWS, calls to the front the religious editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer. This gentleman, who has a longer vacation in the course of a year than any other member of the staff of that journal, or, for that matter, of the journalistic profession, takes up the incident, and after averring solemnly that the color of a negro must be either "inherent" or "adventitious," and that "all races are the same in the distinctive attributes of human nature, though they may represent distinct independent, primordial creations," consoles the religious community with this closing reflection: "All that, however, does not militate against the fatherhood of God." This is edifying. The Christian ministry may go on preaching the gospel, no matter how many miraculous wells may be bored. The colored race, moreover, may take to soap and water without risk of subverting the Christian religion.

IF Judge Reade should take the nomination tendered him by the Radical Rump, which kicked up that rumpus on Tuesday, in Metropolitan Hall, what a spectacle would be presented in this District! The effect, in that event, of Josiah Turner's candidacy would be to play, virtually, into the hands of Mr. Reade and enhance the chances of success of the Judge whom he (Turner) assailed, in 1870, with intense and natural bitterness, for refusing to enforce the writ of Habeas Corpus in his case, when the infamous Kirk had him in prison!

"Hickory, dickory dock,"
How that cradle did rock!
They joined in the song,
About fifty strong,
And in Ike and Dick they took no stock.

The last line is not metrical, but it expresses how completely the "bossing proxies" were set down upon by what Tim Lee calls "the mess convention."

THE Cincinnati Gazette enquires: "What is Democracy?" Well, it is the institution that has been thrashing the Radical party in every contest since 1874, and proposes to continue the operation.

IT IS said that Ben Butler "snoops" for votes. There is something peculiar about that word "snoops" Just spell it backwards once.

THE "independent" Democratic candidate for Congress in the Seventh Georgia District is now spoken of as "Mrs. Felton's husband."

SENATOR MERRIMON will address the citizens of Pender county, at Burgaw, by invitation, on the 12th inst.

HAYES has 884 days of Tilden's salary to draw yet.

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately no one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.
It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.
It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.
It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.
It makes the plainest face beautiful.
It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.
It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.
The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.
Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

HOME REMEDY.

THE MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction. While my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood, and probably for other diseases.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON,

Dear Madam, I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the Doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine appeared to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I don't think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and Respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141, Fayetteville, N. C.

For my personal reliability, I refer, by permission to Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, D. D., North Carolina; Geo. A. Foote, M. D., Warren, Co.; Hons. J. J. Davis and C. M. Cooke, Franklin Co.

The above medicine is for sale by Pescud, Lee & Co., Wm. Simpson, and F. H Heartt, Druggists Raleigh, N. C. or it may be ordered direct from me. For further information, enclose stamp for Circulars to

CIRCULAR SAW MILL. LEVER FEED CUTTER.

Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill, is no new & dauntried saw mill, but is one that is well and favorably known in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superceding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is sold for less than any other first-class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed in cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters, at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used is cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.

Lever Feed Cutter,

Price reduced to $8.00. Send for circular. Liberal discount to agents. No goods consigned. Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

JULIUS LEWIS & Co.—Local notice.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——The Fair is only ten days off, and is the only topic of conversation.

——It is understood that some unusually charming hops will be given fair week.

——A letter is held at the post office, unstamped, addressed to Mrs. Rosa Ellis, Clayton, N. C.

——A procession of buggies attracted much attention yesterday afternoon; 12 of them, drawn by a pair of horses.

——Tuesday night a somnambulistic deaf mute at the Asylum walked out of a second story window. He fell therefrom to the ground below, a distance of many feet, breaking both arms above the elbow.

——The manager of a skating rink in a Western city has written here, asking certain information as to halls, the names of some enterprising citizens, etc., with a view to opening that delightful pastime here, if arrangements can be made.

Bank at Durham.

On Tuesday several gentlemen of Durham met and organized a National Bank at that place. The need for such an institution has been long felt. The capital stock, it is understood, is $100,000.

For the Penitentiary.

Deputy Sheriff James Reid, of Halifax county, brought up two colored convicts yesterday, both guilty of larceny and sentenced to imprisonment for 10 years each. Their names are Bill Hicks and Herod Stovall.

Registration in Third Ward.

The registration books of the Third Ward are now open at Fentress' Store, and will be kept open for inspection. Those who desire to register can do so until, and including, the day preceding the day of election in November.

A Lucky Individual.

It was said on the street yesterday that Mr. Dolan, for some time an employee on the Government building, had struck it rich, having drawn a prize of $1,000 in the Royal Havana Lottery, of Cuba. The truth of the rumor could not be ascertained, but it is doubtless true.

Mayor's Court.

John Johnson, white, was before His Honor, charged with having been concerned in an affray, and made an assault on a man on Wilmington street. There were two cases against the offender, whose name has ere this graced the docket. One charge was dismissed; on the other he was found guilty and fined $5 and costs.

A Work of Art.

Col. Tucker exhibits one of the most artistic paintings ever seen here. It is by Charles Felu, an artist of Antwerp, Belgium, and represents a scene at a gaming table. It is a copy of the celebrated scene by Rembrandt. The painter, Felu, is without arms; yet with his feet alone accomplishes feats of which any artist might be proud.

Personals.

Col. T. M. Holt, the energetic President of the N. C. State Agricultural Society, is in the city.

Adjutant General Johnstone Jones is also in the city, taking steps in his usual vigorous style, for the State Guard Encampment.

Mr. F. C. Christophers, of the well known firm of Messrs. F. C. Christephers & Co., has returned from his Northern business trip.

State Guard Notes.

On Tuesday last, Capt. Jas. A. Graham delivered an address before the Orange Guards, of Hillsboro, it being the company's anniversary. This command was organized long before the war, and was one of the crack companies of the State. It went in the war in the 27th Regiment, and bore a brilliant record in the great struggle, surrendering at Appomattox.

Improve all the Way Out.

A gang of convicts are working on the Hillsboro road, and making a neat job of it. Now the suggestion is made to the Street Commissioner to work Hillsboro avenue out to where they leave it, so as to make it pleasantly passable, and prevent the contrast, during Fair week, of a good road and a bad street.

The Weather.

Observations by Mr. T. C. Harriss, at this point, for the last half of September, give the following results:

TEMPERATURE:

Maximum,	81°
Minimum,	62°
Mean,	71°
Humidity,	78°
Cloudy Days,	4
Prevalent Winds,	NE
Rain Fall,	3.5

Important to Farmers.

Dr. D. E. Salmon, U. S. Commissioner for investigating the diseases of swine, will be in Raleigh in a few days, and desires to be informed of cases of cholera or other disease, that he may be able to determine its nature and prescribe treatment if necessary. All his expenses are paid out of an appropriation made by the last Congress, and our farmers would do well to consult him. He is appointed by the government to do this work, and if any persons having disease among their swine will report it to the Department of Agriculture, Raleigh, they can have the benefit of his services. As his stay will necessarily be short, prompt attention should be given.

THREE SHOTS.

Shooting Affair on Fayetteville Street--A Blow and Three Pistol Shots--No One Hurt.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the people on Fayetteville street, within seeing or hearing distance, were startled by three shots from a pistol. The scene of the occurrence was at the corner of Hargett street, hard by the Raleigh National Bank. A great crowd gathered at once, and it was found that the pistol was fired by Mr. John Doran, the object of his aim being Mr. F. M. Sorrell. Both these parties were at once arrested and carried before His Honor, Mayor Manly. A preliminary examination was held, wherein the evidence given by Mr. A. Kreth, a witness, was to the effect that the affair, so far as he knew, began in front of Simpson's drug store, where, after a discussion, Mr. Sorrell struck his opponent a blow with the palm of his hand. The contestants then separated. Some fifteen minutes later they again met at the bank corner, when Sorrell struck Doran with a small stick, on the head. As the former was a few paces away, Doran drew a pistol and fired at him. Sorrell, then retreating a little, picked up a stone, which he threw at Doran. The latter then fired twice more at him. Neither of the shots took effect.

The parties are well known here. Mr. Doran was a United Soldier, but has for some time been a saloonist. Both parties were held until 10 a. m., to-day, in a justified bond of $50 to appear and keep the peace, as to Doran, and a bond of $50 to appear as to Sorrell.

Bound to be a Thief.

One of the best known criminals in this part of the State is the now notorious cattle thief, J. C. Parrish, of Johnston county. He has been before the Criminal Court no less than five times, for this same crime, and has been thrice convicted, but always sneaked under some point of law and obtained new trials. At the last term of Court, only a short time ago, he was found guilty, but, as usual, took an appeal to the Supreme Court. He gave bond for $500 for his appearance, his father being one of the bondsmen. He went back to his home in Johnston, but had hardly been there a week when he stole a neighbor's cow, took her to Fayetteville, and there sold her. He was soon identified as the thief, and was placed in jail at Smithfield, where he now lies. His bondsmen, it is stated, have come to the city, and with his lawyers declared that they will not prosecute the appeal upon the case in which he was recently convicted. He seems to be an incorrigible rogue, and nothing stands between him and a convicts' life save a short space of time.

State Fair Items.

One of the most important and interesting announcements that has been made in relation to the State Fair, is the fact that the premiums will be delivered on Saturday of Fair week.

The Secretary has prepared a new set of entry and award books, so systematized as to make the results as rendered from the Committees of Award to be put in shape at once for the action of the Executive Committee, and the prompt delivery of premiums at the close of the Fair.

Blanks for diplomas are also in hand, to facilitate their immediate preparation and delivery, and arrangements will also be made for the earliest possible delivery of the medals awarded.

That this desirable end may be accomplished, the office has been organized thoroughly, and the rules and regulations will be strictly adhered to.

All entries must close at 5 P. M. Tuesday, by order of the committee. Awards will be made on Wednesday, and premium cards will be affixed. Donated articles will be delivered on Saturday to successful exhibitors. Premiums on speed will be paid at once in cash.

Mortality Among the Odd Fellows of Memphis.

We copy the following item from the Memphis Avalanche of the 24th inst., as of interest to members of the Order in this city:

"One hundred and six members out of 206 in the Odd Fellows Societies of Memphis have died since the plague began. More eloquent than volumes of words is that one fact. From the true devotion of the living Odd Fellows to their sick, destitute and dying brethren it is evident that the brotherhood of Odd Fellowship is not a phrase but a reality, and when the hour of calamity overwhelms them in one common ruin they stick closer than a brother."

Marriage.

A party of ladies and gentlemen assembled last evening, at the residence of Captain J. H. Renfrow, just outside the corporate limits, to witness the ceremony which joined as husband and wife Mr. W. Thornton Utley and Miss Celestia Florence Renfrow. The ceremony, very impressive, was performed by Rev. W. C. Norman, of Person street Methodist Church, at the conclusion of which the happy couple received the congratulations of their friends. There were no attendants.

Mrs. Vance's Health.

The Charlotte Observer of yesterday says that Gov. and Mrs. Vance arrived in that city Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock, accompanied by several lady friends from Morganton and Adjutant General Jones. Mrs. Vance stood the trip very well, considering the enfeebled condition of her health. She will remain in Charlotte until after the State fair, when, if her strength will permit, she will return to Raleigh. The Governor comes down in a few days, toresume his duties at the Capitol.

Result of a Generous Contribution.

Some three weeks ago Messrs. Landrum & Litchfield donated several hundred dollars worth of their celebrated Seven Springs Alum Mass for the benefit of the Yellow Fever sufferers, and have just received the following letter from the President of the Howard Association at Holly Springs, Mississippi:

HOLLY SPRINGS, MISS., Sept. 16, 1878.

Messrs. Landrum & Litchfield, Abingdon, Va.:

GENTLEMEN:—Please accept our thanks for your case of Seven Springs "Iron and Alum Mass," received some days ago. Quite a number of our citizens are using it with good results.

Respectfully,
W. J. L. HOLLAND,
President Howard Association.

At last it seems that a remedy is discovered to check this fearful disease. Messrs. Landrum & Litchfield are shipping large quantities of this valuable medicine to the South.

Growth of Wheat.

Below is given a letter from one of the best farmers in this county or the State:

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, Sept. 20.

Messrs. Kelley, Purefoy & Brewer, GENTLEMEN:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effects of "Long's Prepared Chemicals" for wheat, I would state that I sowed a ten acre cotton lot in wheat last December, using the "chemicals" in conjunction with cotton seed as a fertilizer. The yield was 150½ bushels of wheat of excellent quality. The season here, as elsewhere in the State, was a very unfavorable one for wheat. Had the season been favorable I have no doubt but the yield would have been much greater. The wheat was sown the week before Christmas, rather late for the best results. I think much of the yield is to be attributed to the "Chemicals." I regard them an excellent fertilizer.

Yours truly,
P. H. MANGUM.

The firm above named keep full supplies of this valuable fertilizer, which they can furnish promptly at any point on the R. & G. Railway. *

Sure of Success.

One of the most varied and best selected stocks of dry goods, groceries, boots, shoes, &c., is to be found at the new store of W. E. Dupree, in the Adams building, Martin street. A young man of enterprise and energy, he is determined to give customers good bargains. *

To Carpenters and Builders.

If you are needing anything in the way of edge tools or builders hardware, of any kind, we would advise you to call at J. C. Brewster's hardware house, where you can find a splendid stock of goods in this line, and at prices to suit the scarcity of money. All tools sold are fully warranted. He will contract for roofing at prices which will enable you to put in your bids (where there is any tin work to be done) lower than ever, giving you an opportunity to use tin in place of shingles.

He uses nothing except the best material. J. C. BREWSTER,

A Word of Warning to Counterfeiters.

The wide-spread fame of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters causes a necessity on our part to remind, from time to time, whom it may concern, of the fact that imitating said article is a punishable offence, and we now give this word of caution, that we will most assuredly have all those persons engaged in re-filling our second-hand bottles selling by the gallon or barrel, or in any manner whatsoever palming off on the public a spurious article purporting to be our preparation, punished to the full extent of the law. Penalty for counterfeiting, or dealing in counterfeit trade mark goods, as set forth in a law recently passed by Congress: "Fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment." We never fail to convict.

NOTICE TO DEALERS AND PURCHASERS.—Hostetter's Bitters are never, under any circumstances, sold in bulk, BUT ALWAYS IN BOTTLES, with a finely engraved U. S. Internal Revenue (special proprietary) Stamp covering the cork of each bottle, fastened to both sides of the neck of same. All Bitters purporting to be Hostetter's, without this Stamp, are counterfeit. HOSTETTER & SMITH.

JONES' BAKING POWDER
FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, whose certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money of every consumer. It stands Unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better pure and more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD.
IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.
YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR.
YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterate and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder, would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article throughout the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."
